

Covid-19 Catch-up Premium Strategy

Projected allocation - £43,200k

Aim	Action	Impact / Evidence of outcomes	Cost
Improve the quality of teaching and pupil progress in English	Development of the English curriculum	Clearer progression routes in English for different cohorts of pupils	£3825
	Implementation of the Read Write Inc literacy programme (blended learning package)	Pupils receive targeted and personalised support to develop literacy skills
	Sensory Reading training for teachers		£200
Support the high quality coordination and delivery of remote education	Funding for a TLR3 to lead on Remote Education	Remote education approach is well planned and coordinated Remote education curriculum and in-school curriculum are aligned Pupils have access to high quality learning opportunities and resources at home	£2833
Support the delivery of high quality and effective remote education	Purchase of 10 laptops for classroom staff to use for delivery of remote education	Teachers and support staff have access to the technology required to deliver remote education effectively	£5000
Increase access to specialist interventions in school to develop physical, sensory and emotional regulation skills	Funding for an activity officer (Rebound Therapy)	Disruption to school routine has resulted in pupils having limited access to therapeutic interventions. Pupils have increased access to targeted rebound therapy sessions to focus on physical, sensory and emotional regulation skills	£21,150
Improve emotional wellbeing, confidence and self-esteem through outdoor learning opportunities	Funding for sessions at Clarty Commandos outdoor learning provision	Secondary pupils have access to specialist outdoor learning environment and participate in activities to develop team building skills, confidence and self-esteem	£1300
Provide counselling support to improve emotional health and wellbeing	Funding for Kalmer Counselling services	Pupils have access to trained counsellors	£4000
TOTAL ALLOCATED TO PROJECTS			£38,308
TOTAL ALLOCATION REMAINING			£4892